These files are great fun for the Commodore 64 and 64C! DAT.CFM is a format used by the DAS (Disk Advance System) module of the C64 and C128, the Commodore DOS and C64/C128 BASIC interpreter. The CFM files contain the data for the boot process of the program. Normally, CFM files contain the information for the text mode which are needed to display the text menu and the prompt. The CFM files come in different types like the (0)'menu' type which are used to display the menu screen for example, the ALTT file type which are used to display a window with your name and other values and the LIST file type which are used to display a list like a table with the titles of the sections of the user's menu. A CFM file contains two "customized" sectors which are located at 0x0000 and 0x000C. Both are used to store the boot values in order to display the text mode of the program. Normally, a CFM file contains the text mode and the I/O modes for a whole program. CFM files can be stored as single files (CFM file only) or as a part of a FDF file. The CFM file b7e8fdf5c8

LOOK: Mariano Diaz Found, Ruthless Attacker Killed The man accused of brutally kicking his wife to death at a Brooklyn deli was found guilty of manslaughter this morning, reports the Daily News. As he entered the courtroom, Mariano Diaz, 42, who maintained his innocence throughout the proceedings, stood and gave the slightest of nods to the woman who had just lost her mother and sister. His family members held a banner that read "Live. Love. Laugh." John R. O'Neill, 42, said he was trying to return the life he once had after being released from prison for a previous attack and becoming addicted to heroin. He said he didn't have anything to live for and a pimp forced him to attack his wife, Sally Diaz. He said she had given his son up for adoption. A trial began in October over the killing of 27-year-old Sally Diaz, who lost her legs after she was beaten on a night out at a Brooklyn deli. Her family accused O'Neill of beating her and an accomplice into a bloody frenzy at Fatboy's East on Oct. 11, 2011. The attack was captured on surveillance cameras and streamed live on Facebook. The gruesome attack was seen by close to 800 viewers before the website was shut down. think the declaration needs to be more specific." Id. at 7-8.
